THE GOLDEN AGE OF LIGHT MUSIC

MANTOVANI - By Special Request - Vol. 2

A second selection chosen by Mantovani's admirers, including melodies by
MANTOVANI - DAVID ROSE - VICTOR SCHERTZINGER
CHARLES W. ANCLIFFE - RONALD BINGE - DONALD PHILLIPS
EDVARD GRIEG - JUAN LOSSAS - FELIX GODIN

Mantovani - By Special Request - Vol. 2

The strong response to Guild Music's first collection of previously neglected Mantovani recordings (GLCD 5110) made a second visit to the great conductor's archives a 'must' for his fans around the world. Among the treasures now rediscovered are no less than four compositions by Mantovani himself, plus rare items such as two numbers he recorded for Decca's wartime "Music While You Work" series, and a tuneful selection from a long-forgotten show "Song of Norway", featuring the melodies of Edvard Grieg. Special mention should also be made of "Concerto in Jazz" composed by Donald Phillips, an unfairly neglected piece by a very talented writer who is better known for his "Skyscraper Fantasy".

Travellin' Light - Great American Light Orchestras Vol. 2

There were many famous and talented composers and conductors on the American Light Music Scene of the 1940s and 1950s, and some names still trigger wistful smiles of recognition to members of the older generation around the world. Others may have been temporarily forgotten, although the contents of this CD should rekindle some pleasant reminders - as did the first American collection on Guild GLCD 5105. Younger music lovers now have the opportunity to discover why recordings by the likes of David Rose, Andre Kostelanetz, Percy Faith, Morton Gould, Victor Young, Nelson Riddle - and so many others brought enjoyment to countless millions during the middle years of the 20th century.
